Continuing Education Credits

O.A.V.T By-law 2, Article 2.2.2 - “In each two-year period beginning January 1 of the year following the date of Registration, each Member shall accumulate a minimum of 20 Continuing Education Credits.”

Upon receiving your Registered Veterinary Certificate, you will be given a C.E. Credit Record that is to be completed by you at the time of the function.

C. E. Credits can be obtained as follows:

1. Conference/Regional Symposiums: 5 credits per full day for a major educational conference as approved by the Registrar. (e.g. O.A.V.T., O.V.M.A., C.A.L.A.S., N.A.V.T.A., etc.)
2. Conference Speaking Engagements: 4 credits per topic, in which you are the speaker, related to the Animal Health field.
3. Published Articles: 2 credits for submission of an educational article to the O.A.V.T. Technews. 2 credits for each article or quiz published in the O.A.V.T. Technews or any other newsletter.
4. Public Education: 1 credit per hour, maximum of 5 credits per day, for each speaking engagement, or public education engagement, that promotes the Animal Health field (e.g. educational luncheon lectures).
5. C.E. Quizzes: 1 credit for each C.E. Quiz submitted and successfully completed to the appropriate agency. These may include the Technews, Veterinary Technician, C.A.L.A.S. Newsletter, or other publications approved by the Registrar.
6. Courses:
 - a) Veterinary Specific courses (University or College level) - 10 credits, per course, per year;
 - b) Non-Veterinary Specific courses – 2 ½ credits, per course, per year;
 - c) Correspondence - at the discretion of the O.A.V.T.

Note: Non-Veterinary Specific courses may only account for a maximum of 25% or five of the minimum required 20 C.E. credits.*

7. On-Line CE: As pre-approved at the discretion of the OAVT Registrar. (Contact supplier to apply for CE Credit value)
8. Other: All submissions will be reviewed and value, if not predetermined, will be determined at the discretion of the Registrar.
